Raman, J.

An interim direction was issued to the second respondent to see that there is no law and order situation created by either of the parties. According to the petitioner, even after filing the writ petition, there was an attempt of assault on the petitioner.

2. The learned Government Pleader, appearing on behalf of the State, would submit that there is a case and counter case between the petitioner and the third respondent.

3. Even though notice is ordered and service is completed, no counter is filed. In the circumstances, there will be a direction to Respondents 1 and 2 to give sufficient protection to the life of the petitioner, if there is threat. Police shall see that law and order is maintained.

With the above direction, the writ petition is closed.

P.R. RAMAN,
(JUDGE)

K. HEMA,
(JUDGE)
